“Hooray For Diffendoofer Day”

To celebrate our completion of the Terra Nova, we have scheduled Diffendoofer Day on March 26th. Hooray For Diffendoofer Day by Dr. Seuss is a book about a school taking a standardized test and that even though they are nervous, they know “how to think” so they will do good on the test! We are currently in the planning stages for many fun filled activities for the students on this day. One highly anticipated event every year is the Special Persons Luncheon. This year it is scheduled on Diffendoofer Day. Please find attached information regarding the luncheon.
